Pioneer Days Festival helps “at risk” children in C/FB community

Northside Baptist Church reaches “at risk” children in the Carrollton/Farmers Branch district

CARROLLTON, Texas - Northside Baptist Church is hosting the Pioneer Days Festival on September 15, 2018 from 10 am to 3 pm at 2000 N. Denton Drive in Carrollton, Texas 75006 to raise funds for “at risk” children within the Carrollton/Farmers Branch community.

Hundreds of children from K-12 go hungry every day because of lack of pantry items. Northside Baptist Church would like to help bring relief to those who are in desperate need of one meal a day. In addition, funds raised from the festival will go toward providing camp scholarships for many children who would never otherwise get to participate in a week-long adventure away from home.

“It is easy for people to forget that there is still hunger in America because most of us never want for anything,” Beth Banning, Director of Fundraising points out. “It is our hope that Northside Baptist Church can not only raise awareness; but offer relief for many of these ‘at risk’ children in our own district.”

The Pioneer Days Festival is for people of all ages and is family oriented. There will be pony rides, a petting zoo, school choirs/bands, children’s booths, and food. There will also be a live auction for hotel getaways, resort vacations, sports baskets, dinner and a movie, and so much more. The Honorable Mayor Kevin Falconer and School Board Representative, John Mathews will join the festivities to judge a pie tasting contest. Lots of food will be available for purchase - hot dogs, hamburgers, turkey legs, cotton candy, frito pie and candy. Carrollton’s finest will be there with a fire truck and the Sidekicks will be performing.

Don't miss out on shopping at the Mercantile and taking photo ops. For information call 972.242.1582 or go to the Northside Baptist Church website at www.nsbcc.com.
